LOVE GOD, LOVE PEOPLE

BY PASTOR DAVID SEAH

As we journey through this year, I am reminded of both the profound simplicity and yet the deep challenge embedded in two of the greatest commandments that Jesus gave us: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind" and "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:37 & 39). These words, though familiar, carry a powerful mandate that shapes not just our relationship with God but also our interactions with those around us.

To love God is to live a life that reflects His teachings and His presence in every area of our lives. It is more than a feeling; it is a commitment to align our will with His, to seek His face in prayer, to worship Him with all that we are, and to obey His Word. Jesus said, "If you love me, keep my commands" (John 14:15). Our love for God is evidenced by our obedience to Him, by the way we trust Him in every situation, and by how we prioritize Him above all else. It is a love that calls us to move beyond ourselves, to shift our focus from the temporal to the eternal, and to pursue Him with all of our hearts.

But this love does not stop with our relationship with God. It naturally overflows into how we treat others. The love of God in us compels us to love people—our neighbors, friends, family, and even those who might be very different from us. The second commandment is like the first: "Love your neighbor as yourself." This is not a passive love but an active one, seen in our willingness to serve, to forgive, to show kindness, and to share the Good News of Jesus Christ.

As a congregation, we are called to embody this love in our community. We are to be the hands and feet of Jesus, reaching out to those in need, comforting the brokenhearted, and guiding others to the truth of the Gospel. This is how we show that we are truly His disciples—by our love for one another (John 13:35).

THERE ARE TIMES WHEN OUR LOVE FOR GOD MIGHT FEEL COLD, OR WHEN LOVING OTHERS SEEMS MORE LIKE A BURDEN THAN A JOY. YET, IT IS IN THESE MOMENTS THAT WE MUST REMEMBER THE SOURCE OF OUR LOVE.

I know that living out these commandments is not always easy. There are times when our love for God might feel cold, or when loving others seems more like a burden than a joy. Yet, it is in these moments that we must remember the source of our love. We love because He first loved us (1 John 4:19). The love we are called to give is not something we muster on our own; it is a love that flows from the heart of God, given to us by His Holy Spirit (Romans 5:5).

As we arrive at the final quarter of 2024 with "Love God, Love People" Conference and Christmas around the corner, I encourage you to take this time to reflect on how you are living out these commandments in your daily life. Ask yourself, "Do I truly love God with all my heart? Am I loving people as Christ has loved me?" Let this be a season where we press deeper into our love for God, allowing it to transform us and, in turn, to transform the lives of those around us.

Together, let us commit to being a community that loves God wholeheartedly and loves people passionately.

GOD'S RESCUE MISSION

BY SANTHOSH VICTOR

Dr. Ivan Satyavrata sharing God's word.

On the weekend of 6 and 7 July 2024, Calvary Church held its Missions Emphasis for the second half of the year. Service at the Calvary Convention Centre began with the choir taking the stage, dressed in various ethnic attire, demonstrating that everyone is of equal importance to God, no matter what their ethnicity.

After the praise and worship session, Pastor Steven introduced a video recap of Calvary's missions work (January - June 2024). It showed how the church shared God's compassion to meet social and humanitarian needs. From upgrading Calvaryland's facilities to helping victims of cyclone Remal in Bangladesh, your generous missions giving has blessed many through receiving help both tangibly and spiritually.

Following this was an enthusiastic choir presentation of "We Must Go" in English, as well as in other native languages. Next came a thought-provoking message from our guest speaker with a heart for missions, Dr. Ivan Satyavrata titled, "God's Rescue Mission". He holds several key roles including one as the current Board Chair of the Centre for Global Leadership Development in Bangalore, India. In his message, he highlighted a parallel between the rescue mission of Queen Esther and our current mission.

Firstly, Queen Esther came alongside God in His rescue mission to save the Jewish people from total destruction. Cousin Mordecai gave Esther a compelling conviction that she was brought into her position to avert this crisis. Similarly, God's rescue mission calls for like-minded people with the conviction that the gospel is the only hope for the world.

Secondly, Esther had to make a courageous choice. Her burden presented her with a formidable challenge: to get all the Jewish people to fast and pray for her three days and nights; for boldness to enter the king's court without his permission (which meant a certain death) to plead for her people's lives. Dr. Ivan mentioned that if we take a bold step in life, God will give us the confidence needed once we decide to lean wholly on His power and not on our own abilities.

Finally, Esther's choice involved a costly commitment. She could have made excuses such as 'why her' or the crisis was too mammoth. However, she risked her life to meet the king.

The choir and worship team in different ethnic attire leading worship.

Dr. Ivan mentioned that it is never a great risk when we turn our life over to God and that it is safer to be in line with God's purposes.

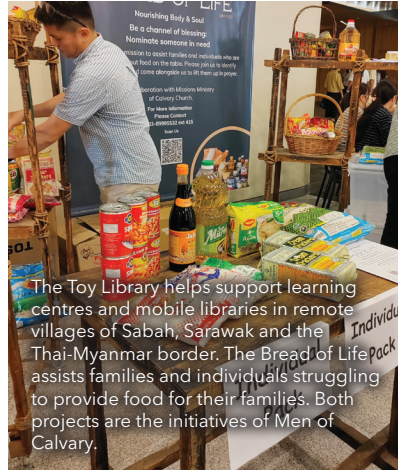

The missions service concluded with an opportunity for Calvarites to make Faith Promise Pledges to enable Calvary to continue to fulfil the Great Commission through Word and deed.

At the main foyer, ministries set up four booths to raise awareness and give updates on Calvary Church's missions, both locally and abroad.

The 10/40 window - a geographic region spanning from 10 degrees to 40 degrees of surrounding parts of North Africa, the Middle East, and Asia where most of the unreached people live.

The Toy Library helps support learning centres and mobile libraries in remote villages of Sabah, Sarawak and the Thai-Myanmar border. The Bread of Life Pack assists families and individuals struggling to provide food for their families. Both projects are the initiatives of Men of Calvary.

Tanzania - We partnered with former Calvary members to equip a new church plant.

Thailand - The church supported the Royal Rangers International to reach unchurched kids in this nation.

Canada - One of the overseas ministries that we are supporting helps disciple youths of the First Nation.

The 4/14 age window - identifies children aged between 4 to 14 who are highly receptive to spiritual and moral teachings.

BREAD OF LIFE

BY CT LIM

We are filled with joy and gratitude to share the success of the first "Bread of Life" distribution. Launched in 2024, Bread of Life is an initiative by the Calvarite men, "Men of Calvary" in collaboration with the Missions Ministry on a mission to assist families and individuals who are struggling to put food on the table. The project had embodied the mission to extend Christ's love and compassion to those in need within our community.

Over the past few months, the Men of Calvary have dedicated their time and creativity to get the Bread of Life project up and running. While we realise that, for the needy families, the initiative only provides nourishment for the body, we also seek to nourish souls. Our ultimate desire is reflected in John 6:35, where Jesus says, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

Through the dedication and hard work of a cohesive team, we were able to distribute essential food supplies to needy families, providing much-needed relief and hope during these challenging times. At the point of writing, a total of 21 families have been blessed.

We have received countless testimonies of gratitude and joy from the recipients. We were especially encouraged by two recipients who, overcome with emotion, told us they were down to their very last meal. Many others shared how the Bread of Life support arrived at a crucial time, lifting burdens and renewing their faith in God's provision.

This is precisely why we, the Men of Calvary, undertook this project. The impact of this project is profound, reminding us of the power of the Church community and the importance of serving one another as Christ loved us.

Our efforts are guided by Scripture, both the Old and New Testaments: Isaiah 58:10 says, "...and if you spend yourselves in behalf of the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness, and your night will become like the noonday." And in Matthew 25:35, Jesus teaches us, "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in."

We invite the Calvary family (bring your friends and family too!) to join us in being involved in this worthwhile ongoing project! Let us continue to be the hands and feet of Jesus, reaching out to those in need and spreading His love far and wide. Together, we can make a difference and bring glory to God through our actions.

AWAKE, O SLEEPER!

BY SHEREEN WONG

The Prayer Awakening Conference on 12 and 13 July, 2024 made a significant impact on the 665 participants who came expecting to receive from God. Invited speaker, Apostle Julius Suubi, spoke on the importance of the two dimensions of prayer – individual and corporate.

Fulfilling our destiny requires us to be dissatisfied with our current spiritual condition and to arise from our spiritual slumber. We need to be awakened to the power of passionate prayer, and to become more interested in God's Word.

What are the mechanics of prayer that activate the supernatural? First of all, our prayers must originate with God – they are His tool for communicating with us, so we learn to relate according to His way. We align our prayers with God's heart and pray according to His will. Our prayers become powerful and effective when we have faith and thanksgiving, and separate ourselves from the things that hinder our relationship with God.

In Luke 18:1, Jesus said that "...men ought always to pray and not faint." Prayer is hard work! The good thing is, we do not have to depend on ourselves – we yield to the Holy Spirit, and He empowers us.

If we want to recover our prayer territory and experience the supernatural power of God, we need to spend unhurried time building our prayer altars every day. The size of our altar is dependent on our sacrifice, and the amount of time spent with God. When there is an increased presence of God in our lives, we have joy and peace in spite of bad news!

WHEN GOD'S PEOPLE COME TOGETHER, WITH EVERYONE CARRYING A CERTAIN MEASURE OF HIS PRESENCE, IT CREATES AN ATMOSPHERE OF LIMITLESS POSSIBILITIES FOR MIRACLES.

Our personal altar is made stronger when we come to the Church corporate prayer altar. Corporate prayer supercharges our personal and family prayer altars. Corporate prayer is powerful because, when God's people come together, with everyone carrying a certain measure of His presence, it creates an atmosphere of limitless possibilities for miracles. That is the unbeatable power of a corporate prayer altar!

This is why we do not just pray alone – we need to come out for corporate prayer meetings. This is one way we advance the kingdom of God. The enemy is always trying to gain ground. If we do not do anything to push back the enemy, he will occupy our prayer territory and the supernatural power of miracles in the Church diminishes.

THE POWERLESS CHURCH IS NOT ATTRACTIVE TO PEOPLE, ESPECIALLY PEOPLE IN NEED OF HOPE.

The Church is called to be a house of prayer. A powerless Church is not attractive to people, especially people in need of hope. Therefore, it is vital to commit our nation to God at every prayer meeting. Without the nation fulfilling its destiny, we cannot fulfil our destiny, personally and corporately as a church.

The Church therefore, must be aggressive in praying against the enemy to reclaim and maintain lost prayer territory. Revival depends on corporate prayer. Revival follows the increased presence of God within and among us. Fresh testimonies will flow out and people will know that our God is real.

In addition to the insightful truths imparted by Apostle Julius, participants were also refreshed by the time of corporate praying in tongues. Many received the baptism of the Holy Spirit and many others also received physical and emotional healing.

A TIME OF REFRESHING: CALVARY CHURCH CAMP 2024

BY CARMEN CHONG

A total of 418 enthusiastic Calvarites gathered for a three-day, two-night church camp at the Swiss Garden Hotel, Malacca from Sunday to Tuesday, 15-17 September 2024.

Our camp speaker, Dr. Jim Rion, led four inspirational sessions with compelling clarity, urging us to be people who move forward, fail forward, 'show up' at our show-up-moment, and make a difference by being different. Calvarites, especially the young adults, were challenged to step up and lead the church forward. Many campers were deeply stirred as they were reminded to be 'awesome people who do things awesomely,' lifting what God is lifting – the gifts within us (2 Timothy 1:6).

One camper, Grace Lim, testified, "We are moved and determined to be parents who will show up for our kids. We want to raise them to know and love Jesus, because if they know Him, they won't go wrong."

Jessica Teo thanked God for answering her prayer by touching her with His tangible, manifest presence at the altar.

Young adult, Wong Yet Kang felt God speaking to him directly and clearly throughout camp, and he responded in faith by taking a step further in his ministry.

During the free time, participants braved the holiday traffic jams and long queues, eagerly anticipating the fellowship – and, of course, the delicious Nyonya cuisine and coconut shakes. Every night, participants caught up with each other and enjoyed the breathtaking views of Malacca, either by the river or from the hotel's sky deck.

Lee Bee Peng thanked God for using her and her husband to provide transportation for two Calvarites, ensuring their attendance at the camp. God also stretched her comfort zone, helping her make 10 new friends instead of sticking to her usual circle.

Both mornings began with campers gathering in quietness to seek the Lord together. The Chinese-speaking campers were blessed with sessions led by guest speaker Reverend Eddie Kok. A concurrent kids' programme was held for children aged 11 and below, providing meaningful activities while the adults attended their sessions.

The first interactive game successfully engaged all campers, regardless of their diverse backgrounds and demographics. Dr. Jim addressed family relationship questions in the second interactive session, drawing from his own experiences.

As a family, Dino, Jessie, and Juno Goh expressed their thankfulness to God for the opportunity to come together during many significant moments at camp. They appreciated the camp messages, which deeply resonated with what God had been speaking to them about their family's spiritual life.

The camp truly refreshed and rejuvenated everyone, providing unhurried time with the Lord and the family of Christ!

走过这一年，想起耶稣赐给我们两条最大的诫命，既简单又充满挑战：“全心、全性、全意爱主你的神”和“爱人如己”（马太福音 22：37 & 39）。这两句话耳熟能详，并带有强大的使命，不仅塑造我们与神的关系，也影响我们与周围人的交往。

爱神是在生活中体现他的教导和他的同在。这不是一种感觉而是承诺，让我们与他的意愿一致，祷告寻求他的面，全心全意敬拜祂，遵守祂的话语。耶稣说：“如果你们爱我，就要遵守我的命令”（约翰福音 14：15）。我们爱神的凭证是顺服祂，在任何情况下信靠祂，让他凡事居首位。祂的爱使我们能超越自我，放下世俗，专注于永恒，全心全意寻求祂。

神的爱不止于我们与祂的关系。祂的爱延伸至我们如何对待他人。神的爱催逼我们去爱人——爱邻居，爱朋友，爱家人，甚至爱与我们截然不同的人。第二条诫命和第一条诫命一样：“爱人如己”。这不是被动的爱，而是主动去爱，甘心乐意地服事，宽恕，对人友善，并分享耶稣基督的福音。

神呼召我们在社区里体现祂的爱。我们要成为耶稣的手和脚，帮助有需要的人，安慰忧伤的灵，叫人认识福音的真理。我们如是表明我们是主的门徒——彼此相爱。（约翰福音 13：35）。

有时我们爱神的心会冷淡，有时爱人并不喜乐反而像个重担。这时候要记住爱的源头。

我知道实践这些诫命并不容易。有时我们爱神的心会冷淡，有时爱人并不喜乐反而像个重担。这时候要记住爱的源头。我们爱，因为神先爱我们。（约翰一书 4：19）。神呼召我们去爱，这爱不是出于我们自己的，而是神借着所赐给我们的圣灵，把祂的爱浇灌在我们的心里。（罗马书 5：5）。

今年最后一季度的“爱神爱人”大会和圣诞庆典将近，我鼓励大家乘机反思自己在日常生活中要如何实践这些诫命。问问自己：“我是否真的全心全意爱神？我是否像基督爱我那样爱人？这个季节让我们更深地爱神，让祂的爱改变我们，并借着我们改变身边人的生命。

KASIHI TUHAN, KASIHI MANUSIA

PENDITA DAVID SEAH

Saat kita melewati tahun ini, saya teringat akan sahutan ringkas namun mendalam, seperti terkandung dalam dua perintah terpenting yang diFirmankan Yesus kepada kita: "Kasihilah Tuhan, Tuhanmu, dengan segenap hatimu dan dengan segenap jiwamu dan dengan segenap akal budimu" dan "Kasihilah sesamamu manusia seperti dirimu sendiri" (Matius 22: 37 & 39). Kata-kata ini, walaupun biasa kita dengar, merupakan mandat kuat yang bukan sahaja membentuk perhubungan kita dengan Tuhan, malah juga interaksi kita antara satu sama lain.

Mengasihi Tuhan bererti hidup dengan mencerminkan ajaran-Nya dan kehadiran-Nya dalam segenap ruang kehidupan kita. Ianya bukan sekadar perasaan; ianya komitmen untuk menyelaraskan kehendak kita dengan kehendak-Nya, berdoa mencari-Nya, menyembah-Nya dengan segenap hati jiwa, dan mematuhi Firman-Nya. Yesus berkata, "Jika kau kamu mengasihi Aku, kamu akan menuruti segala perintah-Ku" (Yohanes 14:15). Kasih kita kepada Tuhan dibuktikan melalui ketaatan kita kepada-Nya, dalam cara kita mempercayai-Nya dalam setiap keadaan, dan cara kita mengutamakan Dia di atas segala-galanya. Ia merupakan kasih yang menggerakkan kita melampaui diri sendiri, untuk mengalihkan tumpuan kita dari yang sementara kepada yang kekal, dan untuk mengejar Dia dengan segenap hati jiwa.

Namun, kasih ini bukan sahaja setakat perhubungan kita dengan Tuhan. Secara semulajadi, kasih ini dicurahkan dengan berkelimpahan kepada cara kita melayan orang lain. Kasih Tuhan dalam hidup kita mendesak kita mengasihi orang lain – jiran, kawan, keluarga kita, dan juga mereka yang mungkin sangat berbeza daripada kita. Perintah kedua seperti yang pertama: "Kasihilah sesamamu manusia seperti dirimu sendiri." Ini bukanlah satu kasih pasif, tetapi sesuatu yang aktif, dan jelas kelihatan dalam kesediaan kita untuk melayan, mengampuni, menunjukkan belas kasihan, dan berkongsi Berita Baik Yesus Kristus.

Sebagai jemaah, kita diseru menjiwai kasih ini dalam Masyarakat kita. Kita hendaklah menjadi seperti kaki dan tangan Yesus, mencapai mereka yang memerlukan, menghiburkan mereka yang patah hati, dan membimbing yang lain menuju kebenaran Injil. Inilah cara kita menunjukkan bahawa kita benar-benar murid-Nya – kerana kita saling mengasihi (Yohanes 13:35).

ADA KALANYA, KASIH KITA UNTUK DIA
MUNGKIN TERASA DINGIN, ATAU TATKALA
MENGASIHI ORANG LAIN DIRASAKAN
SESUATU BEBAN DAN BUKAN SUKACITA.
NAMUN, PADA DETIK-DETIK INILAH HARUS
KITA INGAT PUNCA KASIH KITA.

Saya sedar bahawa untuk melakukan perintah-perintah ini tidak selalunya mudah. Ada kalanya, kasih kita untuk Dia mungkin terasa dingin, atau tat kala mengasihi orang lain dirasakan sesuatu beban dan bukan sukacita. Namun, pada detik-detik inilah harus kita ingat punca kasih kita. Kita mengasihi kerana Dia terdahulu mengasihi kita (1 Yohanes 4:19). Kasih yang kita diseru untuk berikan bukanlah sesuatu yang kita usahakan sendiri; ianya kasih yang mencurahkan dari hati Tuhan, dikurniakan kepada kita oleh Roh Kudus-Nya (Roma 5:5).

Semakin kita dekat dengan Konferensi "Kasih Tuhan, Kasih Manusia" dan Krismas pada suku terakhir tahun 2024, saya menggalakkan anda mengambil masa ini untuk meneliti cara anda melaksanakan perintah-perintah berkenaan dalam kehidupan harian anda. Cuba tanya diri anda sendiri, "Adakah saya benar-benar mengasihi Tuhan dengan segenap hati jiwa? Adakah saya mengasihi orang lain seperti saya dikasihi Kristus?" Biarlah ini menjadi masa di mana kita semakin mendalami kasih kita kepada Tuhan, membenarkan kasih itu mengubah kita, dan seterusnya mengubah hidup mereka yang di sekeliling kita.

Bersama-sama, marilah kita membuat komitmen untuk menjadi masyarakat yang mengasihi Tuhan dengan segenap hati dan mengasihi manusia dengan penuh semangat.

DAVID & GOLIATH ONE VOICE MUSICAL

BY YUEN TZE SVENN

Praise the Lord! God has blessed the church with various musical productions throughout the year. On Sunday, 1 September 2024, the One Voice Ministry (OVM) had the opportunity to present a musical production titled "David & Goliath". Soli Deo Gloria! A total of 1,752 people attended the performance.

125 children and youth singers took the audience on a journey of music, drama, and dance, sharing a message of bravery, courage, and faith. The musical began at 2:30 pm, starting with a warm and bustling marketplace scene that captured the audience's attention.

The story of "David & Goliath" came to life as they danced and sang, highlighting key moments from the perspectives of several characters.

Narrators

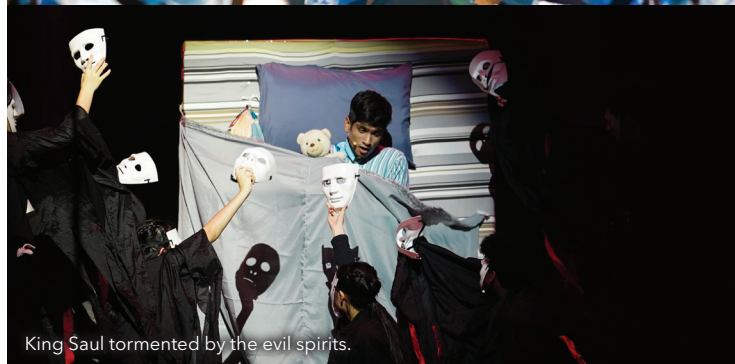

David using the slingshot to defeat Goliath.

Philistine Armies challenging the Israelites.

Israelites armies trembling.

King Saul tormented by the evil spirits.

David playing his harp for the Lord.

The War-Horse was ready for the battle.

Goliath was challenged.

We appreciate Sister Petrina Guneratnam for her love and care to the OVM.

As the first part of the musical came to a close, Pastor Michael Loon took the stage to deliver a message entitled "The Winning Team". Drawing from the characters in the story, Pastor Michael emphasised that God is the one who wins our battles and brings us victory.

We rejoiced and praised God as, at the end of the encouraging message, 35 individuals responded to the altar call, either for salvation or to rededicate their lives to God.

The second part of the musical begins with the song "More Than Able," underscoring that with God, all things are possible. The musical ended in the final battle scene between David and Goliath, where David emerged victorious, followed by an energetic and joyous curtain call to the song "Hallelujah."

We are immensely grateful to God for His strength, protection, and provision throughout the production. Special thanks go to the dedicated parents who made the musical a success.

The OVM dedicated "David & Goliath" to our beloved late Senior Pastor Prince Guneratnam who envisioned a children's and youth choir to spread the good news of Jesus with their talents.

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you." (Deuteronomy 31:6) To God be the Glory! Hallelujah!

When I compare last year and this year, I see they are polar opposites. Last year, I was emotionally and physically reckless to myself and those around me. I had given up on myself; there was a lot of anger in me with the problems I've grown up with. I had reached breaking point and was crying for help. I pleaded with God for guidance, and that is exactly what He did for me. He taught me my life's motives, to epitomise living in everything I do. He showed me things in myself that I didn't even know I had. It was His unconditional love that made the difference and today I know even when I'm falling apart, His love remains.

Before knowing Jesus, I focused on home, school, and play. Despite being baptised, I strayed when I entered university due to peer pressure and eventually drifted from the Church. I got married, worked, and settled into the life as a housewife here in Malaysia. It wasn't until 2021 when I was invited to join a Life Group (LG) that things changed. The LG was extremely warm and welcoming. They have been a constant source of support and prayer to me; they have become our family in KL. So here I am now, renewing my faith and commitment to Jesus.

I always relied on motivational books because I grew up as a chronic worrier. I worried about everything – about family, career, friends, the country, the economy. So I looked to motivational books but they didn't really resonate. One day, I attended Calvary Church and the sermon about Jesus really resonated. I accepted Him as my Saviour. From then on, I worry less and whenever I start worrying, I just look to God and I pray.
