EXPERIENCING GOD'S EMPOWERING
PRESENCE
(Level 2)

27 Jan - 17 Mar
8 weeks

Jesus has commissioned us to be His witnesses and He has sent His Holy Spirit to empower us (Acts 1:8). The primary evidence of the truth of the Gospel is the experience of the Spirit. But for many contemporary Christians and churches, the Spirit is either not given prominence or the manifestation of the Spirit's power is sadly absent. This study seeks to challenge Christ-followers to recapture the true essence of life in the Spirit and to appropriate the power gifts of the Spirit as they ought to be dynamically experienced in the life of believers and the community of faith.

STRENGTHENING YOUR ETHICAL COMPASS IN THE WORKPLACE
(General)

27 Jan - 17 Mar

For those in the workplace, the struggle to maintain good ethics is a real challenge. What more for believers who often find themselves in an ethical dilemma when their Christian values clash with the secular mindset. So, how can Christians maintain godly integrity at work, especially when there is a tremendous pressure to go with the flow? This course seeks to provide a realistic, practical resource that tackles these issues head-on and offer a biblically based compass for doing the right thing in different situations at the workplace, using examples from the life of Daniel.

Drawing on the riches of the great classics of prayer throughout history, it will help us experience prayer at a profound heart-level – not just a place of emotion, but a focus point where the human spirit is transformed and enjoys a new oneness with God.

PENTATEUCH

15 Jan – 19 Mar
7 weeks

The Pentateuch or “The Book of the Law” comprises the first five books of the Old Testament. Genesis depicts a series of beginnings—the beginning of the world, of humankind, and of God’s promise to the Israelites. Exodus is about redemption, Leviticus speaks of worship, Numbers records the wandering in the wilderness, and Deuteronomy is about preparing to enter the Promised Land. In this study, special emphasis is placed on God’s love for His people and the importance of His people keeping the Law in order that they might enter and enjoy the Promised Land.

THE MASTER'S MEN

15 Jan – 19 Mar
7 weeks

You don't have to be perfect to do God's work. Jesus chose ordinary men - fishermen, tax collectors, political zealots - and turned their weaknesses into strengths, producing greatness from people who were otherwise unremarkable. Simply put, they were flawed people, just like us. But through their encounter with Jesus, they became a force that forever changed the world. As you get to know the men who walked with Jesus, you will be inspired to know that if He can accomplish His purposes through them, He can do the same through you.
