The LORD is doing a new thing

See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland.

Isaiah 43:19 (ESV)

Living Wisely in a Shifting World

(General)

We live in a world of rapid change—marked by moral uncertainty, shifting values, and conflicting opinions, where truth is often seen as relative. In the midst of this cultural and spiritual drift, the book of Proverbs offers a steady compass: the timeless wisdom of God for navigating life with clarity, integrity, and discernment. At its core, wisdom is not merely about what you know, but who you are becoming. Anchor your life in God's unchanging truth. Discover the path to faithful and intentional living. Praying in the Power of the Holy Spirit

(General)

Praying is a dynamic, Spirit-empowered relationship with God that transforms our hearts, circumstances, and the world around us. This study invites you to grow in a vibrant prayer life marked by three vital movements: upward in worship, surrender, and intimacy with God; inward in personal transformation and alignment with His will; and outward in Spirit-led intercession for others—breaking strongholds and advancing God’s mission. Maintaining a delicate balance between these three dimensions is essential for our prayers to have kingdom authority, power, and impact. Whether you’re seasoned in prayer or just beginning your prayer journey, this course will help you move beyond performance into a partnership with the Holy Spirit.

Over six weeks, we'll trace the major moments of His divine plan — from creation to new creation, from covenant to covenant. Whether you're new to the Bible or looking to see how it all connects, this course will help you understand God's Word not as 66 separate books, but as one continuous, seamless story — inviting you to find your place within it. This study is especially designed with college students and young adults in mind, but all are welcome — You are part of the Story!

The Prodigal God

(General)

In six captivating sessions, pastor and New York Times bestselling author Timothy Keller opens our eyes to the powerful message of Jesus' best-known yet least understood parable. The Prodigal God is more than a story about a wayward son—it's also about a lost elder brother, and ultimately, about a radically gracious Father. This study challenges long-held assumptions about faith, morality, and redemption, offering a fresh vision of the gospel's very heart—one that speaks to skeptics, seekers, and seasoned believers alike. Rediscover the awe-inspiring truth of God's extravagant love—and let it draw you into a deeper relationship with the Father who runs to meet you.

Mandarin Class: The Practice of Godliness

Scripture tells us that God has given us “everything we need for life and godliness” (2 Peter 1:3). But what does it truly mean to be godly? In this study, we will explore what it means to grow in Christian character and examine the foundation upon which character is built. Discover how godliness shapes our relationship with God, our view of ourselves, and the way we relate to others. Learn how to lay an inward foundation of God-centeredness that will enable you to build an outward expression of God-likeness in thought, attitude and action.

Cantonese Class: Lord Teach Us to Pray: The Lord's Prayer

God is a willing listener, inviting us to pray and receive His blessings as we offer up our petitions and thanksgiving to Him. In teaching us how to pray in Matthew 6:9-13, Jesus emphasizes our relationship with our Heavenly Father and His desire for us to focus on His will and plan. He reminds us of God's providence and our need for forgiveness while recognizing our moral responsibility to resist temptation as we look to Him to deliver us from the evil one. Come learn how to pray so you can stay strong through the trials and temptations of life.
