The Authority, Infallibility and Sufficiency of Scripture (General)

In a world of shifting opinions and “personal truths,” how can we still rely on an ancient book? How can a human-penned book be divinely perfect and truly relevant for addressing the complex ethical dilemmas of the 21st century? This study explores the nature of Scripture— its authority, infallibility, and sufficiency— helping us understand why the Bible is without error, final in its authority, and sufficient to guide every aspect of our lives. More than a doctrinal foundation, it calls us to deeper confidence in God’s Word— anchoring our convictions, shaping our lives, and leading us to trust fully in its sufficiency for every season and every generation.

Contending For Your Unsaved Loved Ones

(General)

Have you been praying for your unsaved loved ones or prodigals for years without seeing results? Don't lose heart—God has not given up, and neither should you. We are not praying to a reluctant God, but to One who is eager to save and redeem. This course equips you to contend in prayer with faith, wisdom, and spiritual authority. Yet the journey does not stop at intercession. We also examine our own lives, allowing the Holy Spirit to reveal and remove any “stumbling blocks”—unconscious habits or attitudes that may hinder our witness. As we align our hearts with God's, we become clearer vessels of His grace—trusting Him to draw our loved ones home.

Elijah: Faith & Fire

(General)

When we think of Elijah, our minds often go to Mount Carmel—the dramatic showdown where fire fell from heaven. We long for that kind of boldness and faith that brings God’s power into impossible situations. Yet behind that defining moment was a hidden story—seasons of silence, solitude, waiting and even adversity that shaped and fortified his faith. Join best-selling author Priscilla Shirer on this journey through the life of Elijah, and discover how the fire on Mount Carmel was forged in the valley of famine—and how God prepares us in unseen and even difficult seasons for His purposes.

Joshua: Every Good Promise Fulfilled

(Level 2)

“Not one of all the Lord’s good promises to Israel failed; every one was fulfilled.” (Joshua 21:45)

The book of Joshua reveals God’s unwavering faithfulness in fulfilling His covenant promises. It is a story of transition and conquest, where Joshua rises to lead and God’s people step out in faith across the Jordan into the long-awaited land of promise. Possessing the land would test their strength and courage, yet God’s covenant would not fail them. Israel’s story is also ours. Though our battle is not against flesh and blood, we contend against the world, the flesh, and the devil—trusting in the finished work of the true and better Joshua, Jesus Christ.

Every Thought Captive (General)

Whether we wrestle with anxiety, negative self-talk, or mental spirals that hinder our spiritual growth and relationships, many of us wish we could control our thoughts rather than be controlled by them. In this video study, best-selling author Kyle Idleman explores five thinking patterns that sabotage our lives and our relationship with God. What we think about shapes our attitudes, governs our emotions, influences our behavior, and ultimately impacts the direction of our lives. But armed with God's wisdom and fresh truth about brain health, we can take every thought captive and embrace the full and flourishing life He desires for us. Freedom begins in the mind, and victory starts with truth.

This course is designed for Christian couples who are preparing for marriage or have been married for less than three years.
